Tournament Director

Grandmaster Kun Chong Yi
President of National Taekwondo Center

Dear Fellow Masters, Instructors, and Practitioners of Taekwondo.

As the tournament director, we would like to welcome all competitors, coaches, parents, and spectators to the friendliest competition in Southern California as we host the 7th Han-Maum Taekwondo Festival at the FELIX EVENT CENTER at Azusa Pacific University. We invite everyone to come and enjoy Taekwondo competition at its finest, and experience competitive demonstration teams perform live in front of your eyes. We will also host a fun 3 vs 3 Cadets Sparring match for everyone to enjoy.

We hope to boost the morale and spirit of competitiveness through an experience that all Taekwondo practitioners will admire. Through this tournament we hope to display the proper friendship of fellow Taekwondo practitioners as they compete and display their skills on the mat, respect and fair play of the Taekwondo nature, and the good character and indomitable spirit of the competitors.

We look forward to meeting you all at our 7th Han-Maum Taekwondo Festival on September 27, 2025 and wish you all the best in all your future endeavors.

Thank you.

Master George Oh
Master of National Taekwondo Center

Hello Fellow Masters, Instructors, and Practitioners of Taekwondo.

We are preparing a fun and exciting tournament atmosphere for all athletes, parents, and coaches this year at our 7th Han-Maum Taekwondo Festival. We would like to invite everyone to come and participate in our events as we try our best to satisfy the wants and needs of our Taekwondo community through our friendly competition. I am honored to be appointed as the coordinator of this event and am committed to providing a fair and exciting tournament experience to all participants.

I would like to wish the best of luck and success to all our participants' future endeavors and look forward to seeing everyone at the Felix Event Center in Azusa Pacific University this year.

Thank you.

Referee Chairman

Grandmaster Danny Gonzalez

Greetings to my fellow Taekwondo practitioners, family & friends,

It is my great honor that I have been appointed as the Referee Chairman for the 7th Han-Maum Taekwondo Festival. The referees and staff will work diligently to provide for a safe and fair competition.

It is always a privilege to have competitors from all over compete in the highest traditions of our sport and art. Taekwondo competition is an essential part of martial arts training, and competition allows students to put their individual skills to the test against other individuals of similar experience and level. But always keep in mind, Taekwondo competition is ultimately a learning experience, and with every experience in life, you gain knowledge, strength, courage, and confidence. Your participation and support is invaluable to the success, growth of Taekwondo.

We are honored to serve you and hope to ensure that each individual has the best possible tournament experience. Thank you for your support, and good luck!

MODERN BISTRO + BAR

To organizers and participants of 7th Han-Maum Taekwondo Festival:

I feel honored and privileged to be a sponsor for this very special tournament. Han Maum in Korean means “One Mind” and this event brings together thousands of people in a united front to celebrate sportsmanship and athleticism. Grandmaster Yi is a long-time friend of mine and it gives me no greater pleasure to partake in this festival directed by Grandmaster Yi. Huge congratulations for putting this event together and I look forward to partnering in many exciting events in the future.

COMPETITION RULES AND REGULATIONS

POOMSAE: Poomsae competitors must perform the designated poomsae for their specific rank. We will be following the single elimination format. There will be a maximum of 4 competitors per division. Maximum of 2 competitors will perform per round and winner will advance for the final round. Winner will be decided based on accuracy and presentation of the poomsae.

Rank (Keup)	10-9	8-7	6-5	4-3	2-1	Poom/Dan
Belt Color	White Yellow	Orange Purple	Green	Blue	Brown Red Red/Black	Black 1 st , 2 nd , 3 rd , etc.
Poomsae	Basic Form or Taeguk 1, 2	Taeguk 1, 2, or 3	Taeguk 3 or 4	Taeguk 5 or 6	Taeguk 7 or 8	Koryo, Keumkang, Taebaek, etc.

KYOROOGI / SPARRING RULES & DIVISIONS

The current WT & USAT rules will govern this tournament. The organizing committee may modify rules according to the local conditions. May combine or divide weight categories depending the size of the group.

Ages 11 & Under (Color Belts) NO HEAD CONTACT

Sparring competitors ages 11 & younger color belts may not make head contact at any time during the competition. A competitor who executes a technique to the head area will be subject to following actions:

- Any technique attempted to the head area but does not make contact will be given a verbal warning by the referee.
- Any technique which makes any contact with the head area will result in a one-point deduction by the referee (Gamjeom).
- If the competitor cannot continue because of contact to the head area, the attacker will be disqualified. Inability to continue competition because of fright, crying, or loss of will following a legal kick to the body does not constitute grounds for disqualification of the attacker.

Ages 14 & Younger Black Belts, Ages 12 & Above Color Belts LIGHT HEAD CONTACT (JSR)

Competitors are encouraged to attempt kicks to the facial area; however, absolute control must be exercised or the appropriate penalty shall be invoked.

- The competitor who executes a successful kick (light contact without causing injury) shall be awarded 3 points.
- The competitor who executes a successful turning kick (light contact without causing injury) shall be awarded 5 points.
- The competitor who executes a kick to the face or neck, which results in a minor injury shall receive a 1 point deduction. A minor injury is defined as an abrasion or bleeding caused by excessive contact.
- The competitor who executes a kick to the face or neck, which results in the inability of the opponent to continue because of injury shall be disqualified. The jury, referee, and judges after consultation with the tournament physician shall make the determination. (Note: Inability to continue because of fright, crying, or loss of will following a legal kick to the head does not constitute grounds for disqualification of the attacker). However, if the referee and judges feel an injury was due to a malicious attack (with anger or the intent to injure), the attacker will be disqualified.

BLACK BELTS (JUNIORS 15-17), & (SENIORS 18-32) FULL HEAD CONTACT (SR. RULES)

World Class Divisions will be divided according to weight.

*Note: The Tournament Director/Chairman may change/alter weight division if necessary to ensure everyone has matches.

ROUNDS: Best of 3 Rounds. Competitors will have 60 second rounds with a 20 second break. The competitor who wins 2 out of 3 rounds becomes the victor. Every round will have 12 point gap. The Tournament Committee reserve the right to change the duration of rounds as necessary. (World Class divisions will have 90 seconds rounds.)

DIVISION: Competitors will be divided according to their age, weight, belt rank, and specified category group. Every group will have a maximum of 4 competitors (World Class divisions will have no limit of competitors). World Class divisions will strictly follow the respective weight classes. Every effort will be made to pair each competitor with a compatible opponent. The Tournament Committee reserves the right to further divide or combine (within reason) the divisions to give all competitors a fair chance to compete.

*Note: The Tournament Director/Chairman may change the time limit and alter weight division if necessary to ensure fairness and maintain safety.
